

POP-UP PARTY

ABOUT US

Velvet has been producing extraordinary tailor-made parties and events since 2005. From all-round planning to providing the finest live entertainment the industry has to offer, we are here to assist in the creation of your perfect event. With many facets to our service and a flexible approach, we always aim to deliver the best event possible for your tastes and budget.

Velvet is the go-to team for all matters relating to event production and entertainment including sound, lighting, AV and event design. With our sister teams and European locations, we have the best selection of furniture and accessories for hire in addition to specialist sourcing and event advice. Our expert team can assist with every element of your event and will be there to offer advice every step of the way.

ARE YOU READY TO CELEBRATE?

You provide the space, we'll provide the party!

Velvet Entertainment and Velvet Living have come together to offer you a package deal that has been affectionately coined 'Party in a Van'. We have assembled some party essentials including lounge furniture, some garden lighting, a bar, a disco, dance floor lighting and uplighters paired with one of our top resident DJ's to bring the party to you. Everything you need to turn your own space into a mini-nightclub. All items in the package can be transported in one van, keeping costs down, resulting in a very budget friendly solution that we know you will love!
